

22 May 2009

Christopher Penn has been a long-time supporter of Kettle's Yard and feels a strong affinity with the philosophy of its founder, Jim Ede, about the place of art in our lives and homes. He is an avid collector and passionate about British art of the 20th century, enquiring and well-informed. Importantly, he is a delightful person.

Michael Harrison
Director