

CHRISTOPHER PENN

Christopher Penn is a familiar figure in the sale rooms, and we have known him as a serious collector of Modern British painting for many years.

On a personal level, I have known him for even longer and can, without hesitation, vouch for the integrity and trust that I know he will bring to his consultancy business advising collectors of 20th Century British art.

He will always be welcome at Sotheby's, and I wish him every success with this venture.
